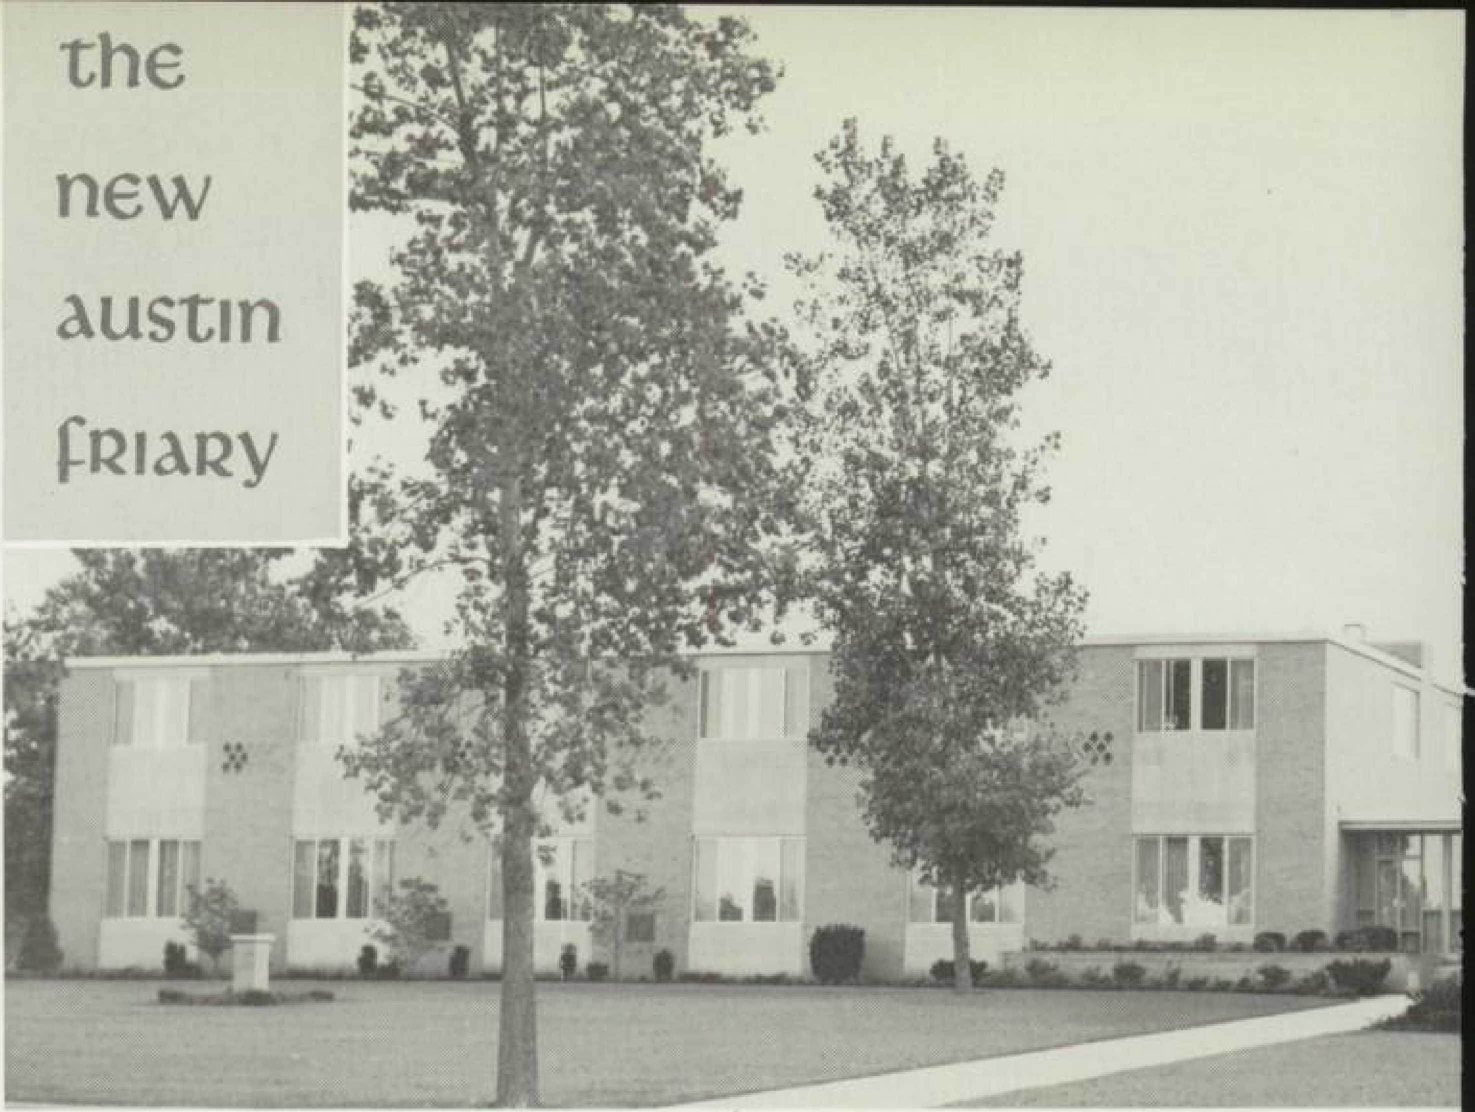
Dedication

the new austin friary

The dedication of the 1959 edition of the school yearbook, Magistro, proudly is made this year to the devoted faculty members of Austin Catholic Preparatory School, Detroit, Michigan.

Today, modern youth stands in need of the inspiration and leadership given by the lives of dedicated men like the Augustinian priests and Catholic laymen on the faculty at Austin.



AUSTIN FRIARY DEDICATION

On Wednesday, October 1st, the official dedication of the new Austin Friary took place amidst the splendor of the Church liturgy. Principals of the solemn ceremonies were the Very Reverend John L. Seary, O.S.A., Prior Provincial of the Augustinian Fathers of the Province of Our Mother of Good Counsel, and Right Reverend Monsignor Archibald M. Stitt, S.T.D., J.C.D., Pastor of St. David Church. The Solemn Mass of Dedication was preceded by the Consecration of the main altar and the blessing of the Friary. These functions were performed by Msgr. Stitt, assisted by Father John Timms, O.S.A., Master of Ceremonies, and Austin Fathers Donald Brennan and Michael Hogan.

Very Rev. Joseph A. Smith, O.S.A., Prior of the Austin Friary, was Celebrant of the Solemn High Mass that followed. Father Leo Burke, Provincial Definitor and Sub-Prior, acted as Deacon and Father John Galloway, Rector of the school, was Sub-Deacon. The sermon was delivered by Father Seary. Serving as minor ministers of the Mass were Austin sophomores Michael Cherry, Albert Butler, Robert Hynous, Tim Pulte, John Rowley, and Robert Sherry. Music for the Mass and ceremonies was provided by the student Schola Cantorum, under the adept direction of Mr. William Mandigo of the faculty.

Father Seary presided in the sanctuary, assisted by Very Rev. Clement C. McHale, O.S.A., former Provincial during whose term of office Austin was founded, and Very Rev. Philip L. Colgan, O.S.A., Prior and Pastor of St. Clare's and constant friend and benefactor of the school. Likewise assisting in the sanctuary were Monsignor Stitt, Monsignor Carroll F. Deady, former archdiocesan Superintendent of Schools and present Pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel parish, Msgr. Hubert A. Maino, Pastor of St. Lucy's, and Msgr. Francis J. McPhillips, Pastor of St. Paul's.

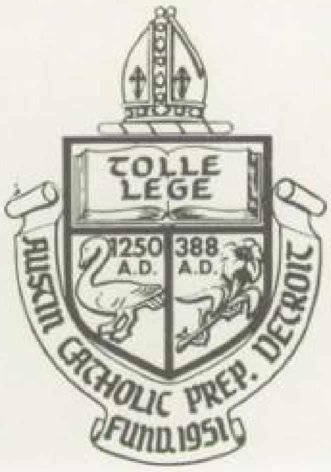
Seal



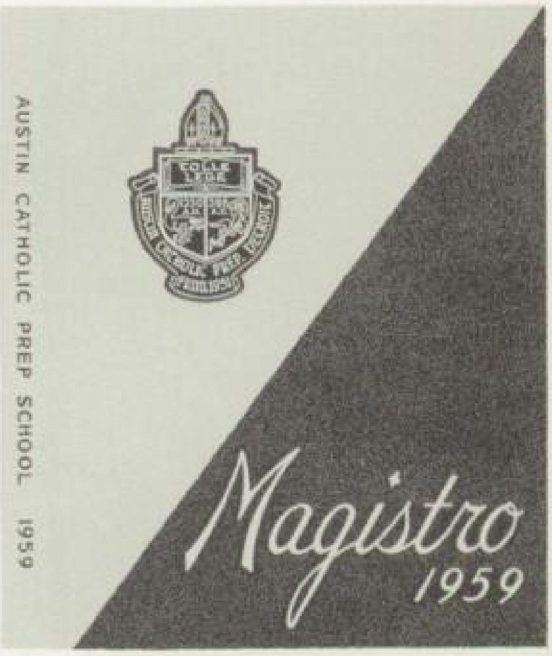
The legend of the seal of Austin Catholic Preparatory School is as follows: The bishop's mitre attests to the episcopal dignity of St. Augustine, the school's patron. The Latin words Tolle, Lege (take up and read), in the upper half of the shield, commemorate the incident in the life of St. Augustine which inspired him to take up the New Testament and to read the passage from sacred scripture which was instrumental in his conversion. The heraldic swan in the left side of the bottom half of the shield is taken from the coat of arms of the Earl of Essex, under whose auspicies the Augustinians flourished in England on their arrival in 1250, and where they were called Austin Friars. The emblematic lily in the right hand side of the bottom half of the shield represents Mary Immaculate, whose devotion and patronage have been associated with the Augustinians from their beginning in 388. The name of the school and the date of its founding complete the inscription in the scroll around the seal.

Magistro

The name of the yearbook is Magistro. It is taken from the title of one of St. Augustine's writings.

In the year 389 A.D. Augustine composed his pedagogical treatise De Magistro. This is a dialogue between himself and his son, Adeodatus, who, though only fifteen years old, was a youth of extraordinary powers. In this literary work the father and son direct their attention to the question of the extent to which one can learn from a teacher. The main thought of the treatise is that man refers all that he understands to the inner truth of right reason which is implanted in his mind. The teacher, therefore, only exhorts the learner to make that consultation. Learning does not come through the words which sound outwardly on the ear but through the Truth which enlightens us inwardly in our minds.

The two colors which are used on the cover of the yearbook are the school colors of Austin, black and white.



Theme

The dedicated teaching FACULTY... of Austin consists of Augustinian priests and Catholic laymen who are devoted to the tasks of giving example, counsel, guidance, instruction, and inspiration, by striving to train their STUDENTS... in heart and mind, and soul, before God and men, so that their education has a quality which technique alone could not impart, and through the LITURGY... by the spiritual formation of the individual, in a Catholic atmosphere, in the religious program of training, the sacramental life of grace of the Church, and through the field of STUDIES... in the work of training the mind, by the acquisition of necessary and useful knowledge as a preparation for higher education, in the recognition of effort and achievement, as well as in ATHLETICS... which balance the development of the mind with healthy exercise and recreation through competitive sports, intramural games, and physical instruction, in sportsmanship and team work with the desire to excel, as also through ACTIVITIES... which by their social nature and extra curricular events round out the personality and help to form the balanced individual.

The Rector's Message

The Very Reverend
John F. Galloway, O.S.A.
Rector of Austin Catholic Preparatory School

Dear Graduate of the Class of 1959:

It is with mixed emotions that I write these parting words to you as students at Austin. Feelings of joy at the successful completion of your high school career are joined with feelings of sadness at losing a class that has been outstanding for its leadership, loyalty and spirit. Such qualities have a very definite effect not only on your own class but also on the classes to follow. This is a very real contribution to the heritage of your school.

For four years we have watched you grow physically, socially, mentally and spiritually. Your teachers have been prodigal of their time and efforts and your parents of their substance, in contributing to this growth. They have spent themselves in order that you might have the best preparation for whatever path you may choose to tread. Their reward will be found in seeing you choose a path wisely, and following it through without deviation of aim or purpose to a successful conclusion.

Your diploma stamps you as an Austin graduate and we expect every member of the class of 1959 to act as such. Let loyalty be the distinguishing mark of your class; loyalty to your God, to the principles you have been taught; loyalty to your parents, your teachers and your school. We are sure you have become "Austin Men" in the true sense of the word and we are proud to send you forth as worthy representatives of our beloved school.

God bless you.

Very Rev. John F. Galloway, o.s.a.

LITURGY

Members of the Glee Club and Choir practice in the chapel every Sunday afternoon. Mr. Mandigo, the moderator of the Glee Club, is very proud of his faithful group. This energetic group performs for the students, faculty, Mother's and Dads' Clubs, and many other special events thoroughout the year, as for example, the dedication of the Austin Friary. James Tocco is their organist.

Austin students are given the opportunity to receive Holy Communion at their Mass in the chapel. Here Fr. Hogan is pictured with the server, Timothy Doherty.

A continuous rosary is said by the student body on First Friday. Each section makes a visit to the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel. Benediction of the most Blessed Sacrament closes the day in the afternoon.

Members of the choir pay attention as Mr. Mandigo leads them in solemn song at the dedication of the Austin Friary.

INRI

The Religious Program

Your religious welfare is the most important thing in your life. The development of healthy religious life is not confined to formal courses, nor does it belong to any one single department of the school. It is intimately tied up with your character, your will, your good sense, the sincerity and honesty with which you live your daily life. Religious ideals have a place in every course which you study and in every student activity in which you participate. Your first concern is, of course, to learn to know and love your religion. But the important problem for the student and everyone is to practice your religion in your daily life.

The Religious Program of the school ought to be the most important program for the student. But this does not mean that it will take up a maximum amount of your time. The Religious Program is founded upon a minimum of prescribed activity. Mention the Religion classes, the weekly Mass, the Annual Retreat, the monthly Confession and Communion—and you have indicated substantially all that the school requires of you. However, every effort is made to provide a maximum of opportunity and every encouragement for you to give voluntary expression to your religious promptings and love of God.

Patron of the School—St. Augustine

In accordance with the immemorial custom of placing Catholic institutions under the protection of a heavenly patron, your school has been dedicated to the great Saint and Scholar, St. Augustine. He was one of the world's most brilliant minds both in natural and supernatural wisdom. Pray daily in your student life to the great Augustine that whatever you may learn in the school dedicated to him, may bring you ever closer to God.

The Chapel

An integral and necessary part of Austin is the simple and yet beautiful Chapel. In it you will find the best Friend you will ever know. If Christ were separated from us by two thousand years of history, it would be a matter of great regret. Actually He is present in the tabernacle at all times and welcomes your daily visits—at least one a day on your own time is expected of all students. The boy who wishes to grow in manly virtue will certainly be generous and faithful in his visits to the God-Man.

Left to right, Richard Kornowski, Robert Frenzel, and Albert Chabot, help Fr. Brennan, school chaplain, to vest in the sacristy for the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on the morning of Junior Mass day.

Under the direction of the school chaplain, Father Brennan, members of the student body who are servers at the school morning Masses are organized into the Sanctuary Society.

Above, Austin students listen attentively to Fr. Robinson O.S.A. who is giving a talk on his work at the Augustinian Missions in Nagasaki, Japan.

Left, "Hoc est enim corpus mean." Fr. Galloway, rector of the school is seen here at the consecration of the Mass for students held each morning during the week.

Below, the school chapel is always open throughout the day for those who wish to kneel in prayer for a few moments before their Divine Master in the tabernacle.

Serving at the Altar

Students who wish to serve Mass may do so by contacting the Chaplain. Servers are needed daily in the School Chapel and in the Faculty residence. After a period of probation such students are enrolled in the Sanctuary Society. Previous experience in serving at the Altar is not required.

The Chaplain

Just as the homeroom teacher and the student Counselor are charged with your educational and vocational guidance, so the Chaplain is specially concerned with your religious guidance. All of your teachers are able and willing to help you but the Chaplain has been assigned this as his special interest.

Religious Guidance

Religious guidance is treated in general in the courses in Ethics, and in the sermon at the students' Mass each week. Personal and direct guidance (spiritual) is given at least once a month in the Sacrament of Penance. Private interviews are given where needed by the Chaplain.

Religion Classes

Religion classes throughout the four years are part of the prescribed course of studies required of all students. Successful completion of these classes is required for graduation.

Prescribed Weekly Mass

Once a week the student is obliged to assist at Mass in the School Chapel. Freshmen and Sophomores on Thursday, (Wednesday—General Assembly), Juniors and Seniors on Friday.

Voluntary attendance at daily Mass, either here in the School Chapel, or in your Parish Church, is urged. Devotions freely undertaken and performed are much more meritorious before God and beneficial in the formation of character, than those of obligation.

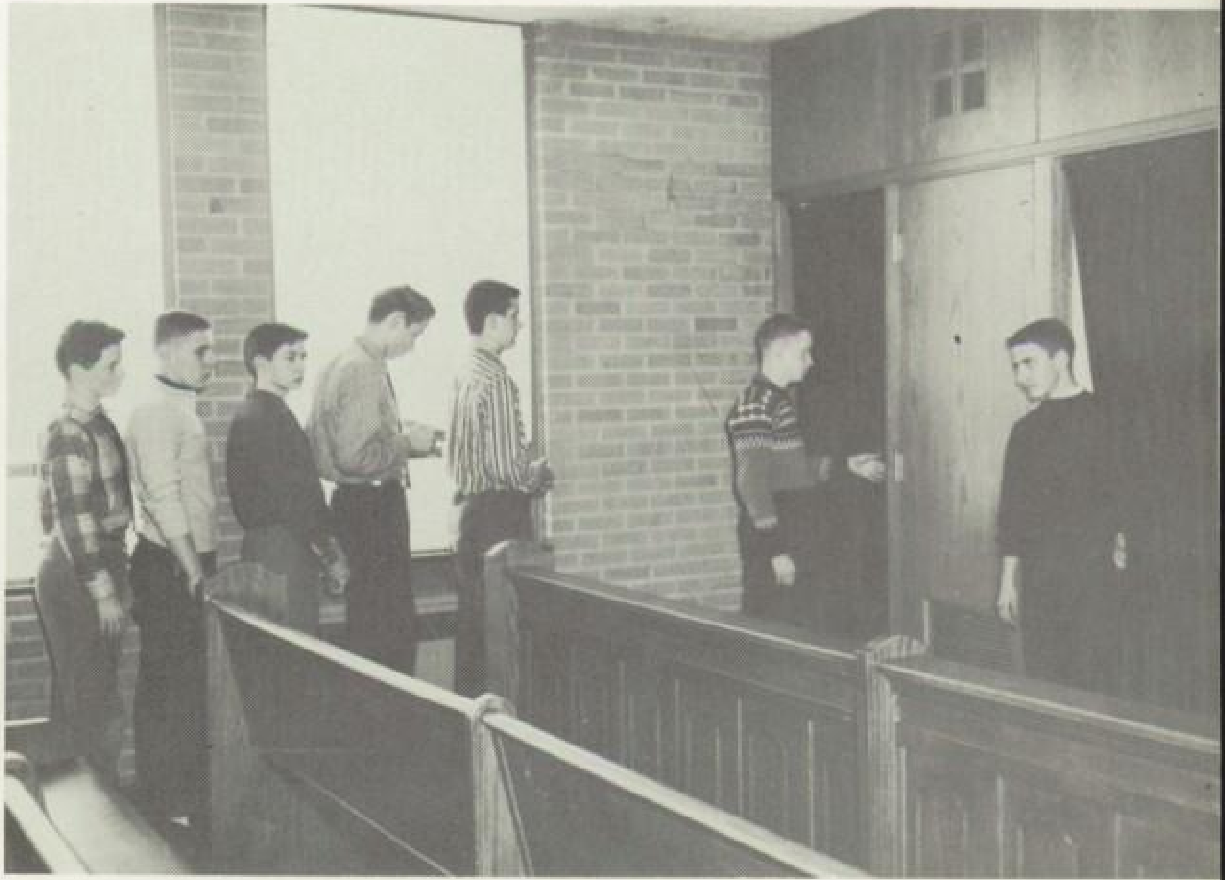
The Annual Retreat

After the mid year examinations a three day detreat is conducted for the students by an experienced Priest. In place of regular classes, a program of spiritual exercises is arranged for each day consisting of Holy Mass, conferences on doctrinal and moral topics, meditations, spiritual reading, Rosary and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The purpose of the retreat is intended to be a spiritual check-up; a reexamination of your soul in relation to God and the direction or lack of direction of your life.

Reception of the Sacraments

Monthly Confession and Communion is the minimum expected of all students. Every encouragement and assistance is given to enable them to receive these Sacraments weekly, even daily. To this end, Confessions are heard daily at the prescribed Masses, and for all sections during the week of the First Friday.



Right, upper, Fr. Brennan, school chaplain, places Blessed Ashes on the foreheads of members of the student body in the chapel on Ash Wednesday. Right, middle, Austin students have frequent opportunity for the reception of the Sacrament of Penance. Right, lower, Holy Communion is distributed to the students attending Mass. The server is Michael Nash.

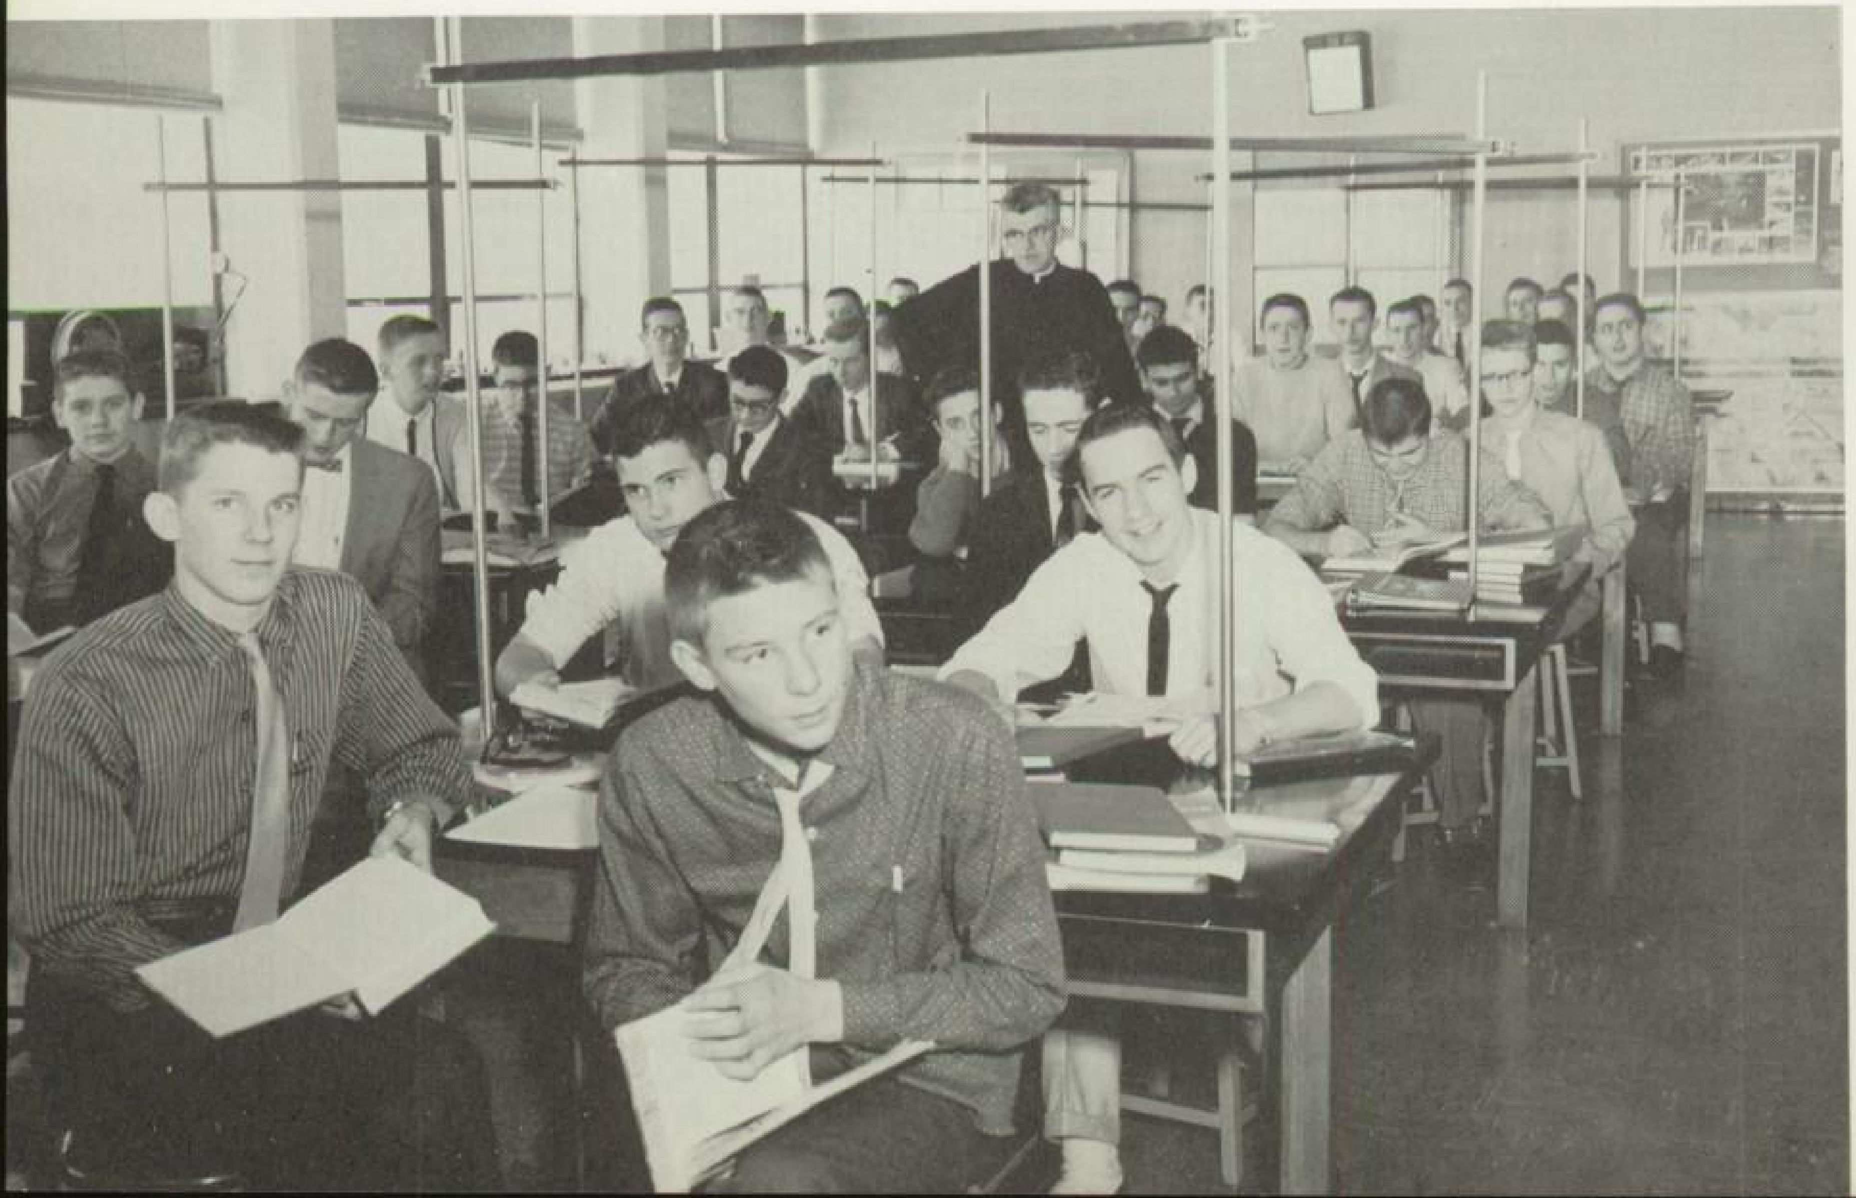
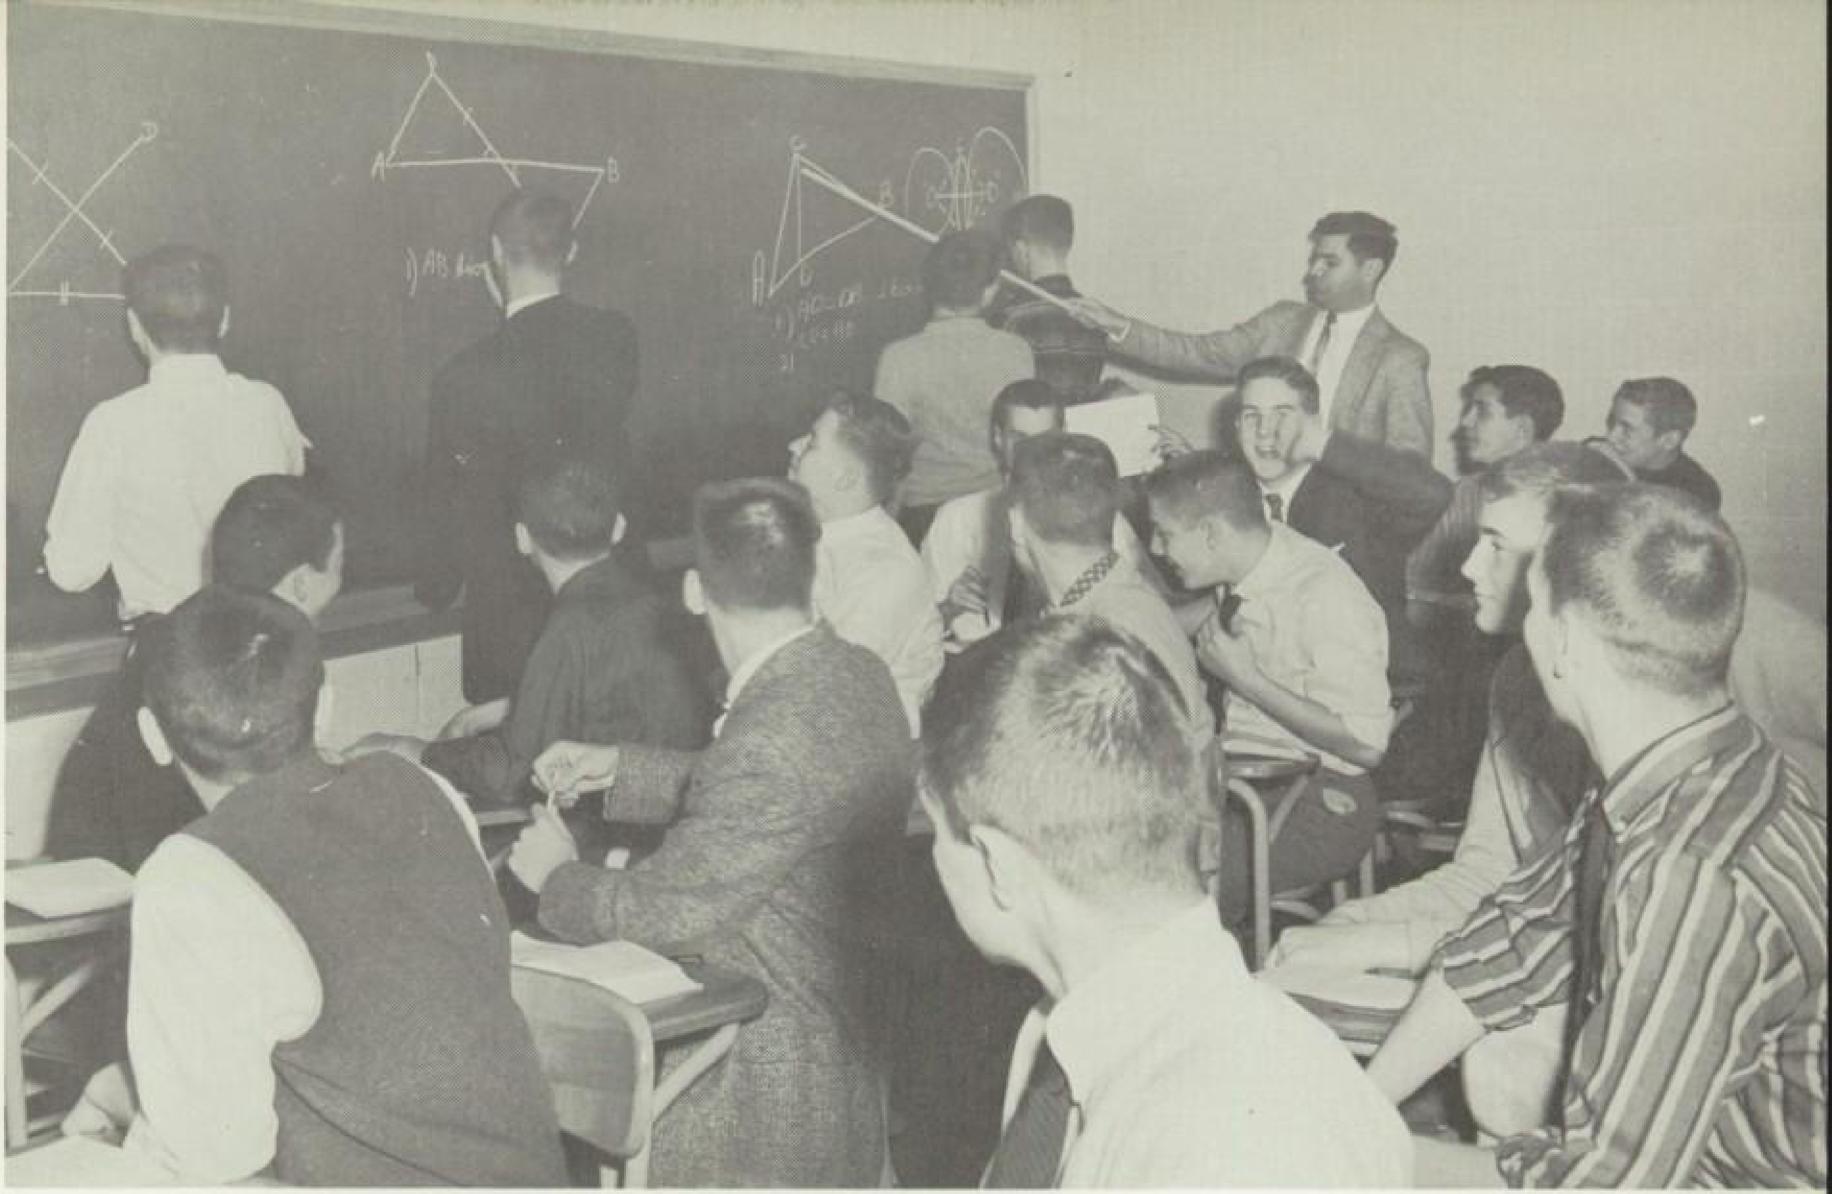
STUDIES

Mr. Turco, sophomore English teacher, pauses for a moment from the reading of a literary selection with section 2-D to pose for the camerman.

Among the many atom charts and home made projects in the physics lab, Fr. Burke seems to have section 3-A baffled by his explanation of Pascal's Principle, except smiling James Beauregard, perhaps, who seems to have the answer on the tip of his tongue.





Mr. Martillotta, sophomore Geometry teacher, points out the intracacies of angles and lines in the geometric figure on the blackboard to one of his students in section 2-A, unaware that Thomas Quilter et alii have let their attention wander momentarily at some amusing distraction at the front of the classroom.

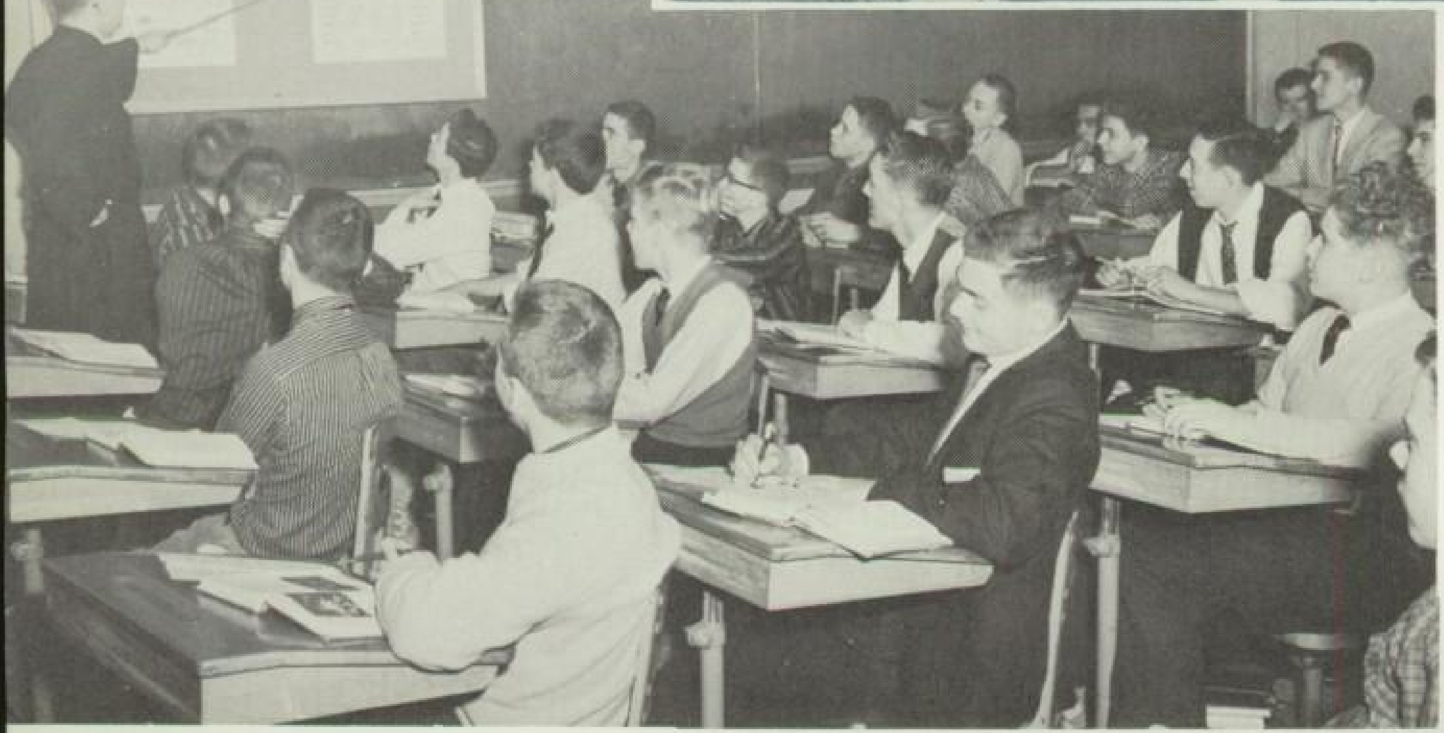
YOUNG CHRISTIAN STUDENTS

Y.C.S. Moderator, Fr. Hogan (center), with members, (left to right), Peter Bologna, William Hodgman, Frank Plecas, Thomas Ewald, Fr. Hogan, William Whyte, Gerald O'Berski, Donald Bershback, Eugene Gargaro, and Martin Burke meet weekly to carry out their program of "observe, judge, and act" on current points of interest.



Fr. Hogan, sophomore Latin teacher points out a group of related words to his students during an afternoon class.

Mr. Mandigo, sophomore American History teacher, listens to the recitation of Charles Rometty at the wall map as he points out the area in Texas under discussion.

HISTORY CLUB

Right: The faculty members displayed in their academic robes are moving into St. Clare to take part in the graduation exercises.

Austin 32 vs. Salesian 0
September 21, 1958

The Friar's opened their 1958 season on September 21 by trouncing Salesian 32-0. Austin 7 vs. Notre Dame 6
September 26, 1958

The Black and White made it two in a row by overpowering the fighting Irish of Notre Dame, 7-6, on September 26. The Friars got their revenge on last year's defeat when Dan LaVerdiere scored the touchdown and Ken Scherer scored the extra point to win the ballgame. The team's effort coupled with our strong bench proved too strong for Notre Dame and they were downed by the boys who knew what football is all about. The Friars looked very impressive and the spirit was running high to defeat the Cubs the following Sunday.

Austin 0 vs. U. of D. High 20
October 5, 1958

On October 5, the Friars suffered their only defeat by falling to the Cubs of U. of D. High 20-0. Although the Friars played a good game and had hopes of beating the Cubs they were defeated by the fired-up U. of D. High squad. The Friars got within scoring range several times but were not able to push the ball over for a score.

Austin 13 vs. St. Joseph 0
October 12, 1958

The Austin gridders rebounded from their previous defeat by the Cubs with a sound defeat over the Blue Jays of St. Joseph, 13-0 on October 12. The Friars looked good on defense and offense and seemed to do everything according to the way Coach Flood wanted them too. Paul Zosel and the team showed they could do it as well as the pros when he threw a pass to Dave Miller on a fourth down situation to score a touchdown. Jerry Finazzo scored the other touchdown and Dan LaVerdiere scored the extra point.

Austin 7 vs. De La Salle 6
October 19, 1958

The Friars again made it two in a row by handing the Pilots of De La Salle a 7-6 defeat on October 19. There was a spirit of fight in the air and the Black and White seemed to do just that by defeating La Salle for the first time in our school's record. It was a team effort and it proved a success when Dan La Verdiere followed the hard-charging line over to paydirt for the game-winning extra point on Ken Scherer's touchdown.

Austin 26 vs. Cathedral 14

Austin 12 vs. Notre Dame 0
September 29, 1958

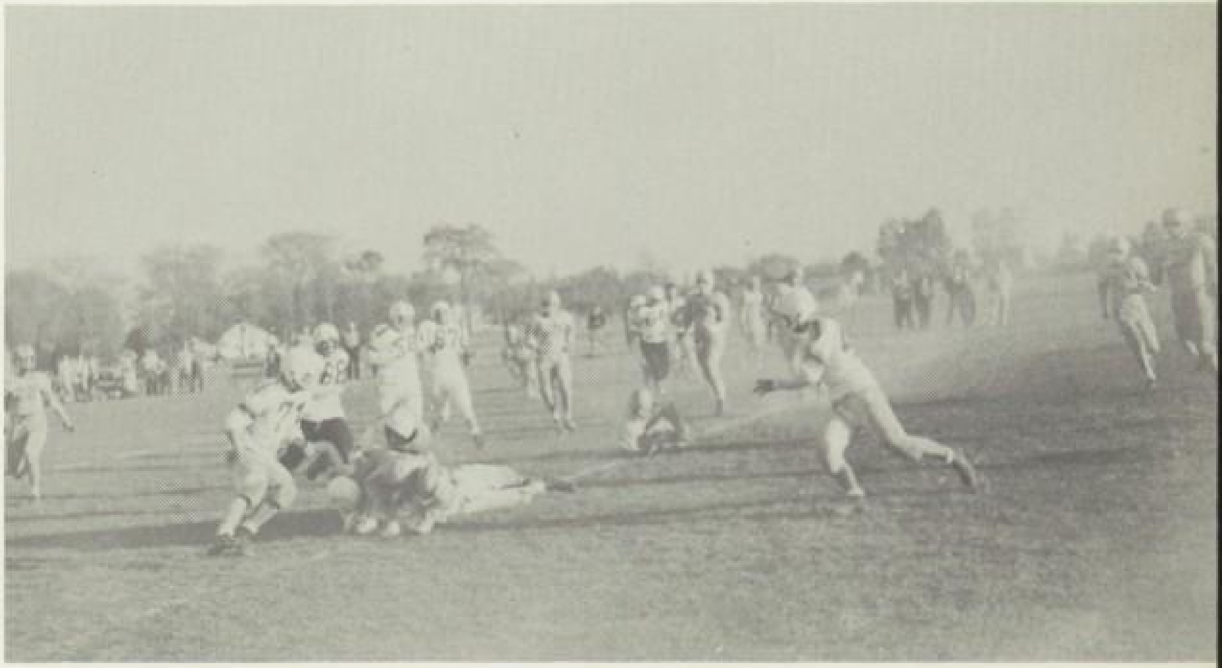
The Friars continued their victory string by beating back the Irish in a defensive battle. The Black and Whites' first score came with Stanley's plunge to give Austin a 6-0 halftime lead. In the third quarter Salkowski broke out for a final score.

Austin 25 vs. U. of D. High 6
October 6, 1958

The Black and White turned in their best game of the year in completely dominating the game offensively and defensively. Smith hit for T.Ds in the 2nd and 3rd quarters to give us a lead at halftime. The junior Friars didn't stop there with Stanley going over in the 3rd quarter.

Austin 6 vs. St. Joseph 13
October 13, 1958

Hard luck hit the junior Friars when they were edged by the hard charging Bluejays. Stewart's T.D. was not enough and Austin trailed 7-6 at halftime. Friar's drives in the second half were cut short by costly errors.



Austin 0 vs. De La Salle 12
October 20, 1958

The slumping junior Friars dropped their 2nd game in a row. A leaky defense and punchless offense were Austin's downfall. A new rebirth of spirit was forth coming after this game.

Austin 14 vs. Assumption 13
October 23, 1958

In a traditionally hard fought game the fighting Friars with fine team effort made a complete comeback from the previous week. Stanley cracked the chalk line in the 2nd quarter for a T. D. twice for a 14-6 halftime lead. The Black and White rode out a late game attempt to rally.

Austin 7 vs. Cathedral Central 13
October 27, 1958

The Freshmen Football team under the direction of Coach Martilotta finished the season with a record of 6 straight victories, producing the first undefeated Freshmen team in Friar history.

The team was led by its great Quarterback, Capt. Bob Plumpe, the fine running of the fleet-footed half-back, Jim West and Denny Marchand, andthe all around play of Dan Steffes, Larry Bruno, Mario Biondo and Mike "Iron Man" Curtin, who played every minute of the first five games.

The success of the team can be attributed to the tremendous team effort of the boys. This was the smallest squad in Friar history with a total of only 22 boys on the squad.

Dan Steffes, who played safety man on defense, saved several games by his tackles, and when Q.B. Plumpe was injured, Dan, a half-back, took on the Q.B. job, and did a tremendous job in the last two games. Tom Eder, the full-back took over at center when needed, and Mario Biondo, middle guard on defense, also took over.at center and both boys did a good job.

The squad was particularly noted for its fine defensive work, giving up a total of 13 points in the 6 games. This is a team that Austin can well be proud of.

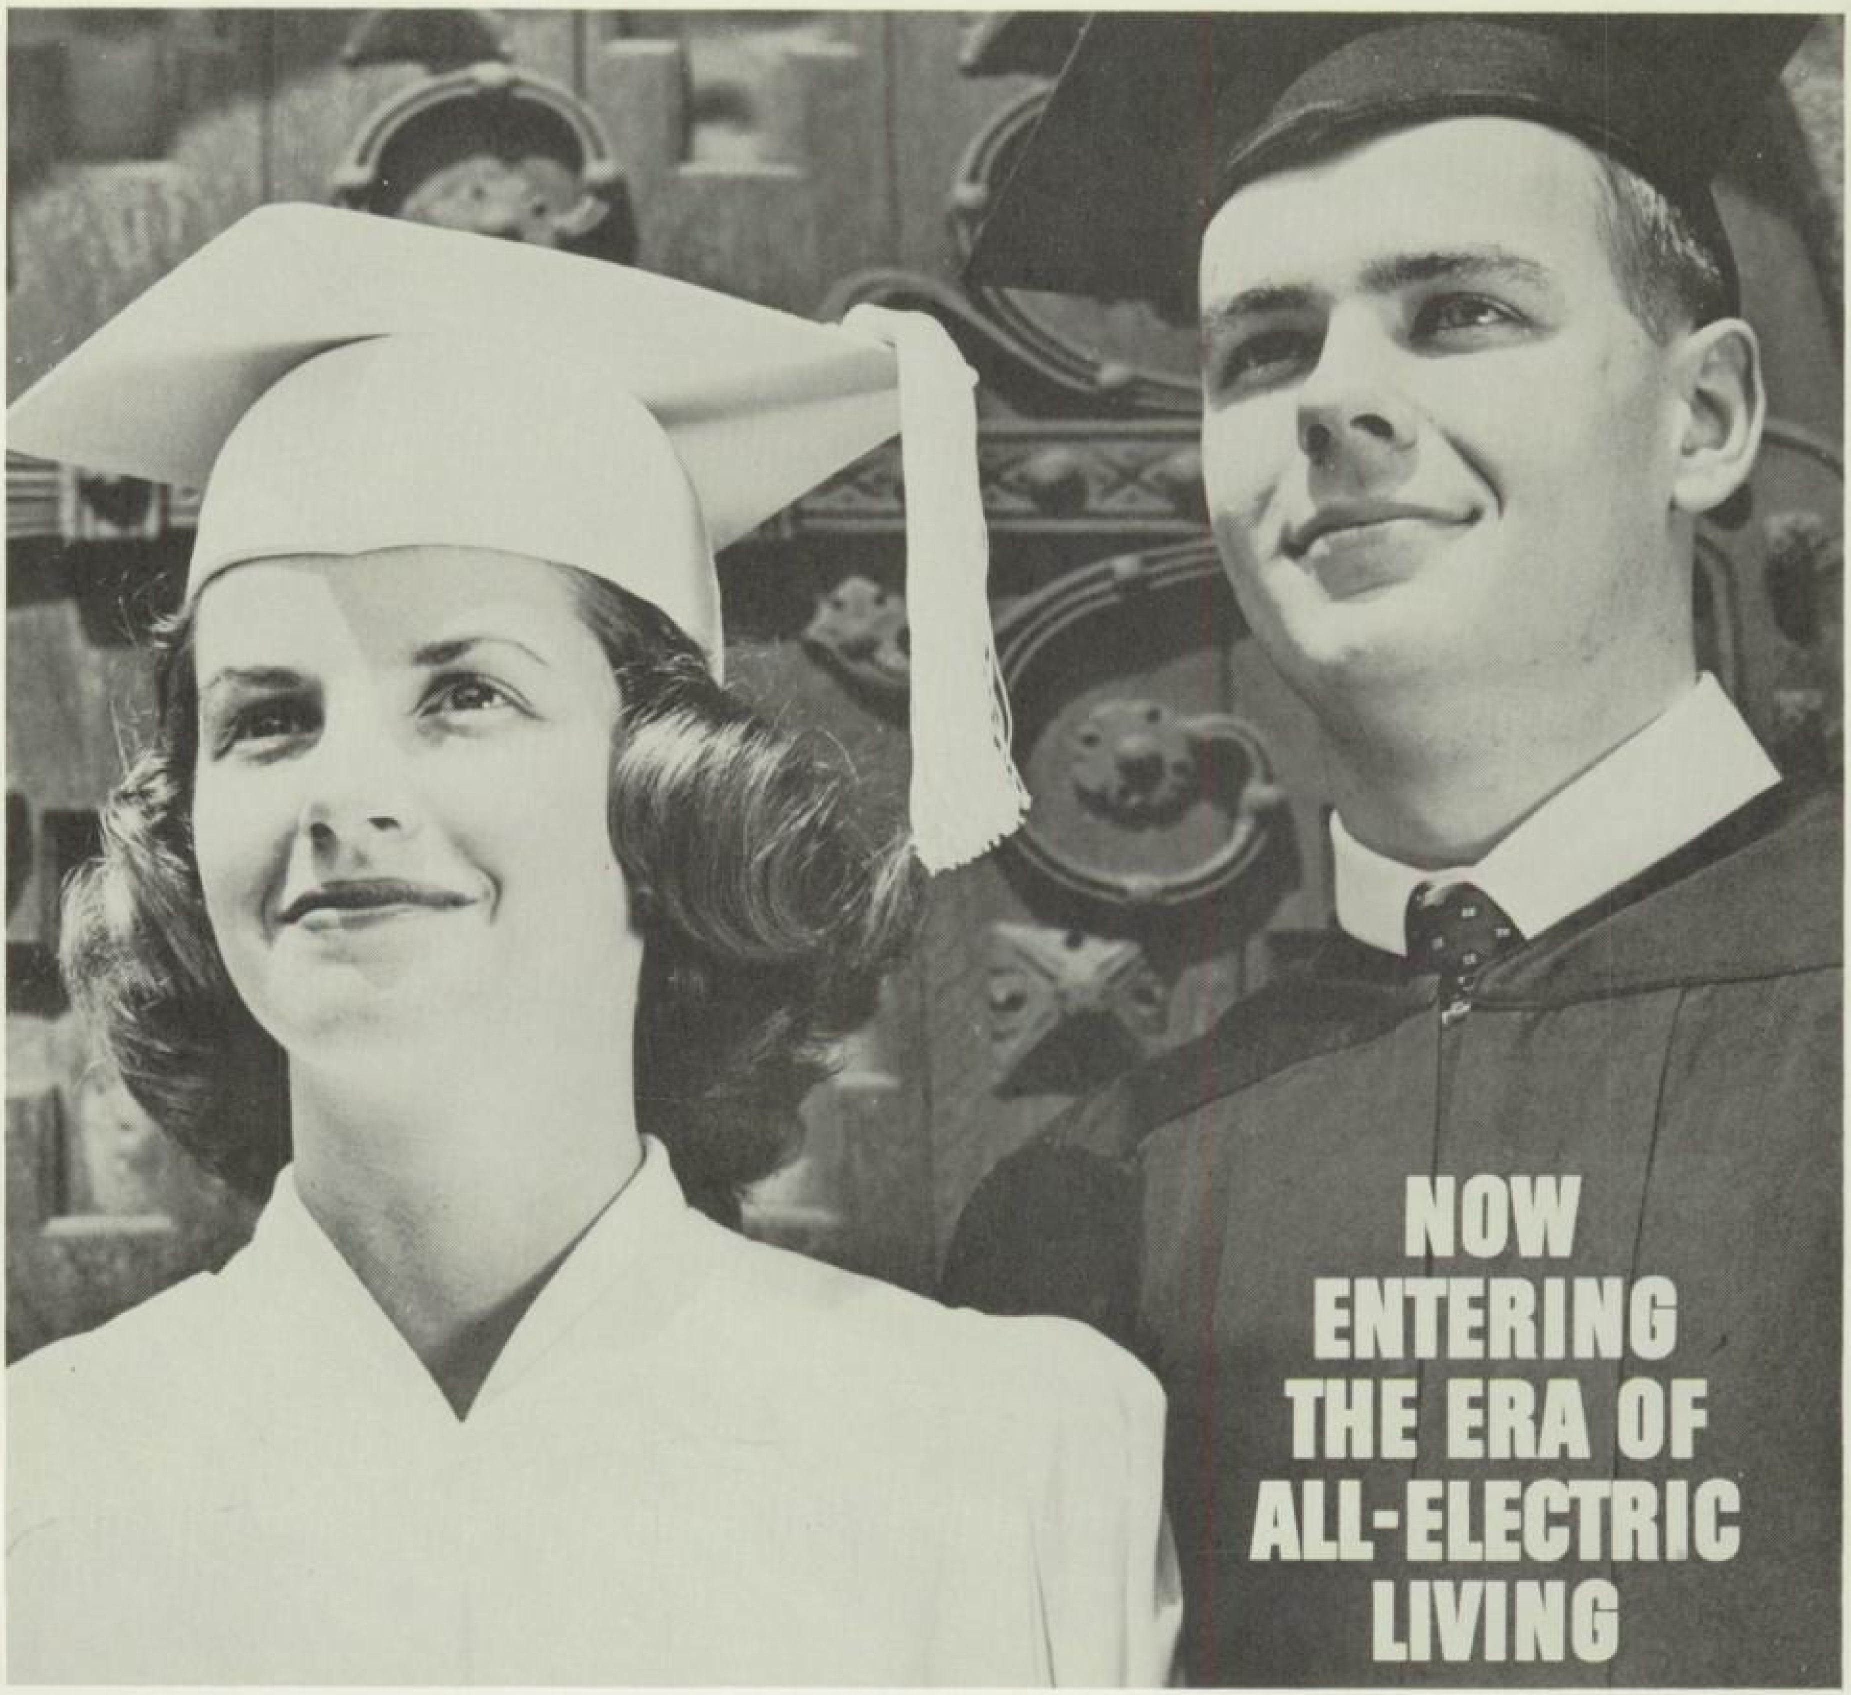
Congratulations, Graduates

That important day when you receive your diploma will soon arrive. And we join with your friends and family in offering our congratulations. As your life is punctuated by the pleasant excitement of graduation day, accept your diploma as a symbol of a job well done. Let it carry you forward as you move on in education or begin your career. Your friends at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company wish you continued success with the new life that now lies before you.

MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY



NOW ENTERING THE ERA OF ALL-ELECTRIC LIVING

Today's graduates are entering an exciting new era where they will live better electrically in every way . . . at home, at work, or at play.

For example, if you choose marriage, you can enjoy an all-electric home. Included will be electric heat, built-in electric range and refrigerator and a host of time-saving, economical electric appliances. They will be the ultimate in modern living comfort and convenience.

Or, if you go into business, efficient electrically operated machines will assist you in getting the job done swiftly and easily—again an illustration of the versatility and dependability of electricity.

Or, if you go on to college, perhaps you will become one of the scientists or technicians who help further mold the all-electric world of the future.

No matter which path you may choose, electricity will be there to lighten your load, brighten your way . . . help you live better . . . electrically.
